

Mady Organic & Natural Food Store, housed one of the most comprehensive range of organic produces in Sarawak , selling local as well as imported fresh vegetables to foreign branded organic products. Currently Mady Organic is representing several well-known brands and companies in distributing organic products in Sarawak to major supermarket chains and local stores. In future undertaking, the company aims to explore more products to service local market and make organic product an easy reach to consumers who are health conscious.